
Interviews of regional Unitarian Universalists were conducted in Spring 2006, using Appreciative Inquiry techniques, which elicit stories and comments about what's already working in a group as a basis for building a positive future.

Find out more about A.I. at <<http://appreciativeinquiry.cwru.edu>>.

For more information about the Baltimore-Washington UU Vital Congregations project, contact the co-chairs:

Jaco B. ten Hove (pbuucministers@verizon.net)

Mike Harris (harrism@allvantage.com)

Connect with Baltimore-Washington UU Congregations via <www.baltwashuus.org>

All collected quotes are available online at <www.baltwashuus.org/VitalCongregations>.

What ALREADY makes Unitarian Universalist Congregations

 V I T A L *****

— Responses from Many Interviews —

“We have a Culture of Connection—with what is divine and what speaks to your heart.”

Compiled and produced by the Vital Congregations team of the Baltimore-Washington Growth Committee, whose overall goal is to develop a comprehensive plan

that will challenge congregations to grow in both size and prominence, to better spread our vision of hope. See <http://jpd.uua.org/metro_south>.

READ ON AND SEE WHAT SPEAKS TO YOU →